California based Canadian Hawley Bennett (33), who was born in British Columbia, began riding, taught by her mother, in the Pony Club. In 1994 aged just 17 she began her partnership with Livingstone a then four-year-old Thoroughbred off the track. Four-years later the diminutive Hawley and Livingstone finished fourth in the North American Young Riders' Championship and the pair was added to the Canadian team Long List. In 2003 they won team silver at the Pan Am Games and competed at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens. In 2008, Hawley and Livingstone competed at Rolex for their fourth time.

Gin and Juice (AKA Ginny) a 14-year-old Thoroughbred mare was bred at her Californian base in Temecula by owners Terry and Linda Paine who are involved in the Thoroughbred industry, as well as being active members of the Sante Fe Hunt.. Hawley, who trains with Buck Davison, took the ride when Ginny was five. Last year they finished 9th at Lexington four-star and went on to win team silver at the WEG completing on their dressage score in 17th place. At the end of the season they ranked 20th in the WBFSH FEI rankings. Hawley recently married Gamal Awad.
