

72 DAG ALBERT (SWE)

Horse: TUBBER REBEL, grey gelding, 16.1 hh, 2000, s: Rich Rebel, d: Killea Lady, Breed: ISH, Country of Birth: Ireland

Swedish rider Dag (41) has been based in the UK for many years with home being in Lichfield, Staffordshire with his wife Liz, where he runs Albert Eventing. Dag's eventing career began in Sweden when in 1987 he was the Swedish Junior Champion. A few years later he made the move to the UK where he has since been based.

In 1996 with Nice 'n' Easy he was selected for the Atlanta Olympics and has since been on the Swedish squad for European and World Championships. He was a member of the team that contested the 2008 Olympics in Hong Kong where he rode the then eight-year-old Tubber Rebel who was the youngest horse to compete.

Dag is a BE Accredited Trainer. Outside of eventing he enjoys shooting

Tubber Rebel is Irish bred by the thoroughbred Rich Rebel out of a mare by the Irish Draught Carrabawn View
