RIDER: SELENA O'HANLON

HORSE:

79 COLOMBO, bay gelding, 16.3 hh, 1994, s: Eighty Eight Keys, d: Colette, Breed: Swedish warmblood, Country of birth: Sweden Breeder: Torde Bond
Owners: Michael & Elaine Davies, Kingston, Canada

After a successful year in 2010 Selena O'Hanlon and Colombo ranked 16th in the WBFSH rankings. The pair gained 12th place at the WEG helping the Canadian team to team silver.

Selena started eventing aged nine and by the time she was sixteen, she earned a place on the first of many North American Young Rider teams. She then brought on young horses for her mother's sales yard and her own mare to advanced level and in 2006 was given the ride on three-star horse Colombo. In 2008 Selena, who trains with American international rider and 1997 Badminton winner David O'Connor, gained her Olympic dream representing Canada in the Hong Kong Olympic Games. The following year the pair was 20th at the Rolex Kentucky four-star.

Colombo formerly ridden to three-star by Canadian Kyle Carter is a 17-year-old Swedish warm blood by the successful Thoroughbred Eighty Eight Keys, sire of Swedish Olympic event horse Keymaster
