

www.badminton-horse.co.uk

RIDER: ANDREAS OSTHOLT

HORSE:

82 : FRANCO JEAS, black gelding, 2000, s: Friedenstraum, d:L'Amérique, Breed: Hanoverian, Country of Birth: Germany Breeder: Rudi Seifert
Owner: DOKR, Warendorf, Germany

Andreas (33) is an 'athlete solidier' and Head of the Riding Unit of the Sport Development Group at the German Military Sports School in Warendorf. He is a well known competitor of German National Championships and German Professional Riders Championships in which he has been regularly well placed and came to international prominence in 2002 with Lady Lemon with who he first rode at Badminton in 2008. He has trained pupils up to European Championship level. He is the brother to German team rider Frank who was also entered for Badminton but had to withdraw after a fall resulted in a broken shoulder. Andreas's philosophy is that 'the basic formula for success is optimisation and good training'. He is married to Sabrina.

Franco Jeas a Hanoverian owned by the DOKR (the German Olympic Committee) is by the Westphalian Friedenstraum who is descended from the British Thoroughbred Furioso, out of a mare by the Thoroughbred Lemon, the sire of his former ride Lady Lemon.

Notable results

2011 – Fontainebleau CICO 16th Franco Jeas
2010 – Luhmuhlen CCI* 8th Franco Jeas
2010 – Vairano Vidigulfo CCI 2nd Franco Jeas
2009 – Luhmuhlen CCI 4th Franco Jeas, 10th Rainman
2008 – Deauville CICW final 9th Lady Lemon
2002 – CCI Luhmuhlen 5th

Badminton

2008 – Ret'd XC Lady Lemon